

Dearest Friends,

We at the First Church of Christ, Scientist are pleased to announce that we will be holding a live online web lecture on Sunday, June 7th at 2 PM. Our lecturer is Nate Frederick, Christian Science Practitioner and Lecturer. Nate's lecture is entitled, "Learn to pray and heal (a spiritual adventure)." Nate will share about the fundamentals of effective prayer, as he has learned from studying Christian Science, as well as how healing is truly possible for everyone
